HAS FAILD TO PAY LICENSE

Dr. Gall was summoned he found his Large Amount Lost by the County

A striking example of loss of revenue through neglect to collect county licenses has just come to our notice, and which calls loudly for redress even at this late date. John Ratto, proprietor of the moving picture show in Jackson, in addition to his show at county seat has been operating branch shows for the past two years in Sutter Creek and Amador City, usually playing two nights in each place. The license tax for the Jackson show under the city ordinance is $25 per quarter, and this tax has been faithfully collected by the city officials. For the outside shows a license tax is required at the rate of $2.50 for each performance, or $10 per week, collectable by tax collector U. collector. Inquiry at the sheriff's office shows that the matter of collecting this transitory class of license is left largely to the sheriff's deputies in the respective outside town. We sim-Mrs Hicks was suffering much pain ply mention this fact, although it has this story—the tax collector is responsible on his official bonds for the faithful collection of this revenue.

Now, from the outset there has been a disposition in county affairs to favor Ratto in the matter of license tax, without any excuse being given theretunate enough to fracture two ribs in that is all we can make out of it, and the arms of Mrs Hoyle.

The records show that Ratto paid for two licenses in July, 1908, and one in October of the same year, making supervisors in December, 1908, the following appears on the minutes:

It was moved and carried by the unanimous vote of the board that John Ratto be granted a free show license in Amador county for the period of three months.

In May, 1909, we find another entry on the minutes to this effect:

John Ratto of Jackson, Cal., peared before the board and asked the board for a free show license in Amagranted a free show license in Amador county for the period of six months.

We have no hesitation in saying that these so-called free permits were withlegitimate basis. But for the period included within these permits the supervisors and their legal adviser must bear the responsibility for the loss of revenue. Even conceding their validity. the last permit expired in November, 1909, but Ratto appears to have continued right along in the show business without contributing in the way of license payments for the support of the government. In June, 1909, an opposition moving picture was started in the Ratto example before them, apcense for five months, which would excontinuing in business.

Cleveland Jones left Saturday for Sacramento, to which point his wife went a few days before. He left saying that he intended to return in a few days. It is not believed, how ever, that he is likely to come back of his own accord. Many creditors are left to mourn. He borrowed all he could, and contracted debts in a number of business houses besides. He is a smooth and plausible talker, and played upon the kind-hearted and sympathetic business men. His debts will foot up several hundred dollars all told. There is some talk of bringing him back by legal steps, but whether it will materialize we cannot say. He has been here some six months or more, engaged in singing at the moving picture show a part of the time, and employed in other ways. How long will Jackson continue in the 'Easymark,'' list to be victimized after this fashion.

Operations at this mine, located in the town of Plymouth, are proceeding at a satisfactory gait, under the personal supervision of Mr Henry, the president of the company. Fifteen men are employed in clearing around the shaft and other preliminary work. Material and supplies are being received on the ground. The company is taking hold in a manner that shows they mean business. The people of the old town are elated over this revival of the mining industry right at their doors-something they have been a stranger to for twenty years. Central Eureka

It is reported that the regular ledge was encountered early last week in the 2800 level of this mine. This is not to be identified in any way with the small streak of rich ore reported some time back, and which had a boosting effect upon the stock, which fell back to its former figures as soon as the excitement had subsided. The ore body which was reported last week was toward the east, and supposed to be a continuation of the vein opened up in the South Eureka. If this be so, it is a discovery of great value, assuming that the rock is anything like that found in its neighbor to the south. We have learned nothing definite since as to the quality or size of the ledge.

THE MAINE ELECTION,

The political outlook, judging from the result of the and sent up within 20 minutes. From through the water in a similar manner election in Maine last Tuesday, is anything but encouraging from a republican standpoint. The democrats elected Plaisted and two barrels of 1000 yards of line the vessel to skim the water at high governor, two out of four congressmen, and claim the legislature on joint ballot, which will give them one United States of 50 yards by one to five other kites, senator from that state. The factional strife within the republican ranks represented by the struggle between the insurgents and regulars, has probably dampened the party spirit more than all toe of the shoe is prevented. It is exthe efforts of democracy combined. When one wing of a political party takes issue with the controlling faction on a this arrangement, and that walking vital question of policy, like the tariff for instance, the effect cannot be otherwise than bewildering and harmful. In face Prof. Weinberg, of Tomsk, Siberia, of this warning voice from Maine, it behooves republicans to stop their bickerings, and work harmoniously to carry the November elections. The paramount question now is, not whether insurgent or regulars shall control the republican party, but whether republicans or democrats shall control the next congress. The drift of the elections so far is adverse to the party now in control. There is a feeling abroad that a change in party majority in congress would make little acres with the larger one, are a Gerdifference to the toiling masses anyway, and would not disturb industrial conditions. That was the kind of talk they plete equipment includes a motor gave us in the Cleveland campaigns. But it is matter of truck, driving rope, anchor vehicle, history that it did make a big difference. And if the experiment is repeated, it will work still greater mischief than it The 1000 to 3000 feet of specially did twenty years ago.

That senator Caminetti of this district opposed bonding the state for five million dollars in aid of the Panama Exposition either to the rear wheels of the vehicle to be held in San Francisco in 1915 is well known. The motives prompting his opposition are not so clear. We do not believe his stand on this proposition is in line with the prevailing sentiment of his constituency. The Sacramento Union intimates that he explained his opposition vote by to the motor truck. ### Died Suddenly

Only a few days ago, Miss Helen Prichard went to the Placerville sanatorium for treatment for what was at the time considered gastric trouble of the stomach. Examination by the physicians, however, led them to believe that the real cause of trouble was an affected appendix, and the patient was so informed. She did not think her affliction was of sufficient importance to warrant an operation, and declined to submit to that ordeal. She improved, and was apparently getting well, when Monday she was taken suddenly worse and at an early hour Tuesday both Drs. Rantz and Reckers were hurriedly called. But it was too late to afford her relief, and the young lady passed away at about

Her death was due to breaking of the appendix and consequently poisoning of the entire system. An operation even at the time she went to the sanatorium might not have proven successful in saving her life. The deceased was one of the most upright and popular young women of this community, and her death will be universally regretted. She was serving in the capacity of bookkeeper for the El Dorado Water and Deep Gravel Mining Company, which position she had held for some years past. She was a native of Sutter Creek, Amador county, 32 years, 3 months, and 6 days old. Her father, Elias Prichard, is dead, but she leaves a mother two sisters and one brother, also an uncle, four aunts and grandmother living in this county, Sacramento and San Francisco.-Nugget.

Doc Golding Gets Bad Set Back

HON, JUDGE F. V. WOOD

An epidemic of influenza among horses is reported throughout this section of the county, and many animals as a result are in a serious condition. The disease causes the legs to swell, and eyes become very much inflamed. Several cases thus far are reported as having fully recovered, and no deaths have as yet occurred.

Dr. Golding, the popular veterinarian from Jackson, is telling his friends of an incident from which he is just re-

Pigeon Captured

Last Sunday one of the Cuneo boys, living near Clinton, noticed a strange bird flying in the air. Its appearance and motions attracted his attention. It was no ordinary bird of the domestic pigeon variety. It is reported that on seeing it Cuneo shouted "Hello, Bill." Whether the bird understood the call, or from exhaustion, we cannot say, but it flew to the to know it. If any of our readers caller, and was easily captured. It proved to be a pigeon of homing or carrier variety. It bore a silver band on one leg, inscribed "J. L. 1304." It was evidently tired after a long flight, and descended for rest and food. With its needs supplied, it would no doubt resumed its journey, or returned home. It was brought to Jackson the same day, and sold to a boy for 50c. What became of it we have been unable to learn.

Smoke Signals

The traveler on the plains in the early days soon learned the significance of the spires of smoke that he sometimes saw rising from a distant rilge or hill, and answered from a different direction. It was the signal talk of the Indians across miles of intervening ground, a signal used in rallying the warriors for an attack, or warning them for a retreat.

The Indian had a way of sending the smoke up in rings or puffs, knowing that such a smoke column would at once be noticed and understood as a signal and not mistaken for the smoke of some camp fire. He made his rings by covering the little fire with his blanket for a moment and allowing the smoke to ascend, says Harper's Week ly. The column of ascending smoke rings said to every Indian within thirty miles: "Beware! An enemy is near!" Three smokes built close together meant "Danger." One smoke merely meant "Attention." Two smokes meant "Camp at this place."

Frequently at night the settler or the traveler saw fiery lines crossing the sky shooting up and falling, perhaps taking a direction diagonal to the lines of vision. He might guess that these were the signals of the Indians, but unless he were an old-timer he might not be able to interpret the signals. The old-timer and the squaw man know that one fire arrow, an arrow prepared by treating the head of the shaft with gunpowder and fine bark, means the same as three columns of smoke puffs--"An enemy, is near." Two arrows meant "Danger,' three arrows, "The danger is great." Several arrows indicated 'The enemy is too powerful for us.'

The said coupons shall be consecutively numbered and shall bear the lithographed signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the third day of July, 1911. No interest shall be paid on any of said bonds for such time as may intervene between the date of said bond and the day of saie thereof, unless such accrued interest shall have been, by the purchaser of said bond, paid to the state at the time of such saie.

Sec 3. There shall be provided in the general appropriation bill sufficient money to defray all expenses that shall be incurred in the adver ising of the sale thereof, as in this act provided.

Sec, 4. When the bonds authorized by this act to be issued shall have been signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed as in section one provided, the state treasurer shall sell the same in such parcels and numbers as the governor of the state shall direct, to the highest bidder for eash. The governor of the state shall size to the state treasurer such direction immediately after being requested so to do, through and by a resolution duly adopted and passed by a majority vote of the advisory board of the department of engineering. Said resolution shall specify the amount of money which, in the judzment of said advisory board shall be required at such time and the governor of the state shall direct the state treasurer to sell such number of said bonds as may be required to raise said amount of money and that said bonds shall be sold in consecutive numerical order commencing with the first four hundred thereof. The state treasurer shall not accept any bid which is less than par value of the bond plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date. The state treasurer may at the time and place fixed by him for said sale continue such sale as to the whole or any part of the bonds offered to such time and place of sale by publication ury of the state and placed in the interest and sinking fund.

The moneys placed in the state highway fund, pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be used exclusively for the acquisition of rights of way for and the acquisition and construction of said system of state highways. The route or routes of said state highways shall be selected by the department of engineering, and said route shall be so selected and said highways so laid out and constructed or acquired as to constitute a continuous and connected state highway system running north and south through the state, traversing the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys and along the Pacific coast by the most direct and practicable routes, connecting the county seats of the several counties through which it passes and joining the centers of population, together with such branch roads as may lation, together with such branch roads as may be necessary to connect therewith the several county seats lying east and west of such state highway

Moneys shall be drawn from said state highway fund for the purposes of this act upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands made by the department of engineering and audited by the state board of examples.

In this way, the state virtually becomes a stockholder in the enterprise without a stockholder's liability.

I am of the opinion that the people of California should not be afraid to vote this tax-levy at the polls in November. ### Election Proposition

Many are inquiring the reason for the supervisors calling the special election on the question of establishing a county high on the day prior to the general election. It is contended that the two elections on succeeding days-7th and 8th November-will be apt to interfere one with the other. The only plea that has been advanced for this action by the supervisors is that it will save the expense of one distribution of electric booths and supplies. One trip over the county will answer for both elections. seems to be running the economy idea into the ground. The few dollars saved by this arrangement does not begin to offset the inconvenience of the voters occassioned thereby. Certainly voters distant from a polling place are not likely to make the two trips necessary to cast a ballot at both elections.

Arrested in Calaveras County.

Bert Hancock was arrested at Camp Seco last Monday, on a warrant issued by W. L. Rose, justice of the peace at Sutter Creek, on complaint of his wife, charging him with neglecting to provide for his family. The warrant was served by the authorities of Calaveras county, and the accused was lodged in jail at San Andreas. Sheriff Gregory went over there Tuesday, and brought the defendant to Jackson, and placed him in the county jail. On Wednesday he was taken to Sutter Creek to answer to the charge.

Some time ago Hancock was married to Mrs Prout, who was a resident of this town for several years. She was then a widow, with several children, two of who were minors, between ten and fifteen years of age. After a time the family returned to this county, living at Sutter Creek, Hancock securing work at the South Eureka mine. According to his account, after receiving his pay he went around and paid his bills, as far as the money would go. This was his habit, as he wished to deal honestly with all. A difference arose between him and his wife on financial matters, and he left some three weeks ago. He obtained work at the copper mine at Camp Seco, and had been working there about a week when arrested on this charge. It is said he had not received any pay up to that time. The affair has given birth to a good deal of unfavorable comment. Hancock has no children of his own.

Deafness Can not be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear There is only one way to cure deafness; and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can oe taken out and this tube restored to Its normal condition. hearing will be destroyed forever: nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Primary Election Cost

The cost of the late primary election in Amador county was approximately $3500. While this is a heavy toll for simply furnishing candidates for the various offices to be filled by election, it is moderate in comparison with some counties. In Sacramento the expense run up to $20,000. When the cost per capita is considered, however, Amador stands pretty well up to the top of the list. There were less than 1500 votes cast in this county, so that the cost per vote was about $2.50. The aggregate cost was considerably more than at a general election-state or presidential. The next legislature will no doubt amend the law so as to make more economical as well as more efficient. Taxpayers will not be satisfied to pay so heavily for simply naming candidates for office.
